

CONTENTS

PUBLISHER'S NOTE	i
PREFACE	ii

PART ONE - I WRITE AS I PLEASE

TRAVELLERS TALES

Introduction	3
Letter From Woodlark Island	4
Letter From Mandalay	7
Letter From Khugert Somon	9
Letter From Dailing	11
Letter From Santa Cruz	13
Letter From Tikitere	15
Letter From Madison	18
Sent By A Mushroom	21

PEOPLE & PLACES

Introduction	24
UN Faces a Challenge in the Future of a Stone Age Land	26
Art of the Asmat	29
A Paradise of Islands	31
The Name Droppers	34
Come All Ye	36
“An Engineer of Extraordinary Versatility”	38
Forestry in Iceland	41

Forestry Beyond the Rim	44
Roadside Forestry	48
Paul Bunyan – Conservationist	54

LITERARY AND SCIENTIFIC

Introduction	57
Old Light on New Problems	59
Trees and Temperature	63
The Wood from the Trees	66
New Roles for Old Coconuts	68
Coconut Charcoal Could Fuel Ships	71
Land Alone Endures	73
Loggers Squeeze PNG	76
Chips from Everything	78
A Faustian Dilemma	80
Unnatural Practices	85
To Each His Own	88
To Him That Hath....	90
Burning Questions	92
Logs Versus Lumber	94
Sticks and Carrots	97
Ecological Democracy in New Zealand	100

FOOD AND FOLKLORE

Introduction	105
Beyond Tempura	106
Norfolk Island Nourishment	109
Hot Stuff For Gourmets	111
Venison Market has Velvet Lining	114
In Memoriam, Arthur Wakefield Monthly, March, 1986	116
To The Manor Re-Born	119
Tourist Table D'hote	121
Cheese Please	124
Melting Pot of Culinary Delights	127
Little Fishes, Gourmet Dishes	129

REPORTS FROM CHINA

Introduction	133
Comrade, Spare That Tree	136
China Re-Visited	138
Report From China	140
A Policy In The Ashes (with Ellen Salem)	142
Designing Wood Out of the Economy	145
Forest Products and China's Trade	148
Mother-In-Law Troubles: The Forest Industries of China	150
Ducks In the Bedroom, Fish on the Roof	152
Another Cultural Revolution	155
Thank-You Truly	157

PART TWO - BREAD AND HONEY

Education and Research

Introduction	161
Education
Changing Perceptions of Forestry - Some Implications for Forestry Education	166
Forestry Education in the Asia Pacific	178
Cultural Revolution in Canterbury	189
Research
The Proper Priorities of Research and Development	192
Forestry and Forest Products Research	202
The Function of Research Organisations	204
Environmental Sustainability - A Global Perspective	217
New Zealand Forestry Research Pioneers, An Address	223

PART THREE - AND WHAT PLEASES ME

Introduction	231
Innovation and Prosperity in Forestry?	232
Non-Wood Forest Products - A Regional Overview	254
Agro-Forestry and the Pacific Islands (with Janet Richardson)	272
The Beginnings of British Forestry	289
Multi-Purpose Forest Valuation	304
Learning From China	315
Et Cetera
Introduction	329
Food for Forestry	331
The Influence of Rooting Medium on the Structure and Development of the Root Cap in Seedlings of Acer Saccharinum L.	332
The Lonesome Pine Lives On	334
	336
Obiter Dicta	338